

Dendhur

"Captivating" and "comfortable" best characterize the Dendhur Group lounge seating designed by William Schacht. The designer has created a classic using generous curving shapes and perfect proportions. The sensitivity to detail is best expressed in the gently curving foot and carefully placed welting.

Captivating Design

Generous, Curvilinear Proportions

Refined Details

Frames are constructed of maple solids with exposed wood surfaces available in a broad selection of finishes. Fabrics may be selected from Haworth's entire line of textiles and leathers, as well as COM/COL.

Dendhur occasional tables in round and square shapes compliment the Lounge Group.
