Autumn Finish
Journey® Seating, Symphony Carbon

There's much more here than greets the eye. A hidden worksurface pivots from beneath the single pedestal desk... Voilà! Instant expansion of productive real estate. Lauderdale packages loads of convenience in a winning transitional style for the private office. Start with a few executive decisions, such as which edge option, and which pull style; in either cinder or platinum. Then top off the superbly finished chassis with a matching hardwood veneer or task-tough laminate top.

The surest way to please is to offer something for everyone. Flush oval grommets with optional pop-ups accommodate electrical accessories smoothly—even those with larger plugs. Specify additional grommets to make cord removal easier and a cable management system for your worksurface to keep wires in their place and out of your way. After all, neatness counts for a lot these days.
