Here's a sure bet for great-looking lounge seating. Reno combines contemporary smartness with inviting plushness, so your guests can kick back and feel right at home. The one-seat lounge is an odds-on favorite for flexibility. Add a tablet arm and you get unmatched comfort for document-related tasks, including those extended training sessions.

Or make it mobile with optional casters and easy-navigation handle, finished in classy satin nickel. Reno's unique 2 1/2 seat sofa requires less floor space while providing users with more personal space. And here's more good luck: you don't have to be a big spender. Reno proves that a modest ante can still take the jackpot.
